Dear Philanthropists,

The ACHEH TIMES [tax-exempt/code 501(c)(3); ID # 59-3807700] is asking for your ‘financial support’ for development and maintenance of its operations which will have two locations: Washington DC and Aceh, Sumatra, Indonesia. These two locations will serve as headquarters for the TIMES, a comprehensive alternative medium on Aceh and other regions of Indonesia.

Programs of the ACHEH TIMES project include:

Renting office space and expanding board membership;

Expanding Data base, Web content and Print distribution;

Research and Development. Purchasing articles/analysis in-depths from independent writers in addition to news and photos from agencies such as AFP, AP, and Reuters;

Educational Grants. Aceh Times funds the TOEFL program (Test of English as a Foreign Language) for High School Students whose permanent residence is in Aceh.

Aceh, the epicenter of the tsunami of December 26, 2004, has become a center of world focus. With the tsunami, thirty years of war, and a complex society, the Acheneese landscape—its distinct lifestyle and politics within Indonesia—has created many questions. Will democracy flourish, will there be freedom for minority viewpoints, can peace take hold, and will the greater Indonesian economy flourish or stall?

Instead of trying to predict what the future holds, it is better to create it! The ACHEH TIMES seeks to promote freedom of opinion and expression, including the freedom to seek, receive, and impart information and ideas through any medium, regardless of frontiers. For educators, students and policy makers, the ACHEH TIMES indubitably is an indispensable resource for research. The ACHEH TIMES is also a source of inspiration toward positive and productive life-styles. Above all, it is meant to inform, educate and provide a forum for civil opinion and understanding.

We hope you will contact us to work together in our projects. Our contact address is: P.O. Box 1303, Springfield, VA 22151. Phone/fax: (703) 914-0678; Email: info@achehtimes.com or visit online: www.achehtimes.com.

We are looking forward to hearing from you.

Regards,

Machyar Gleuenta
